

As a retired citizen who uses a cell phone as my home phone I am quite concerned with the number of unsolicited phone calls from sales people I get while driving in heavy traffic under dangerous conditions. I resent this dangerous practice and have done what I can to eliminate it. Please do nothing to make this situation worse.